

A Workshop in the LOCAL HISTORY SERIES

Hawthorne Works

SER 001 04

Learn about Hawthorne Works (1905-1983), part of Western Electric, from local historian and newspaper columnist, John Rice. At one time the plant employed more than 40,000 people, including several generations of area residents.

Date: Thursday, September 21

Time: 7:00p-8:30p

Fee: $5 (Senior waiver does not apply to this class.)

Room: 241B

The Hawthorne Museum will be open that evening, and the book, Hawthorne Works, part of the “Images of America” series published by Arcadia Publishing, will be available for review and purchase.

Last workshop in the series: Haymarket Incident – Nov 2
