~~The College will provide classes only for those credit courses which are part of the established curriculum and for which there is adequate enrollment. If the enrollment is less than 15, at the discretion of staff/administration reserves the right to cancel the class. Exceptions may be made if the closing of a section prevents persons from the scheduled completion of their educational program.~~

The College shall offer credit courses that are part of the approved curriculum and for which there is sufficient enrollment to support effective instruction and responsible stewardship of institutional resources.

The College reserves the right to cancel course sections that do not meet established minimum enrollment thresholds, as determined by the administration.

Exceptions to minimum enrollment requirements may be approved when cancellation of a course section would significantly impede a student's timely completion of a degree or certificate program or otherwise undermine student success.
